PENTECOST SUNDAY

JUNE 8, 2025

Psalm 104:27-34 Today's words of wisdom come to us from the Old Testament book of Psalms, chapter 104 written by King David, highlights God's majesty through the wonders of nature.

Allow these words to open up your heart to God presence this day.

(Speaking in Spanish)

All creatures look to you to give them their food at the proper time.

When you give it to them,

they gather it up;

when you open your hand,

they are satisfied with good things.

When you hide your face,

they are terrified;

when you take away their breath,

they die and return to the dust.

When you send your Spirit,

they are created,

and you renew the face of the ground.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever;

may the Lord rejoice in his works—

he who looks at the earth, and it trembles,

who touches the mountains, and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord all my life;

I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

May my meditation be pleasing to him,

as I rejoice in the Lord.

O Lord, you have given us the gift of your Word.

People: May we ever protect and keep it pure. Amen.

WORD OF GOD

Romans 8:14-17 speaks about the profound relationship between God and believers, emphasizing that those led by the Spirit are children of God. These verses will open your heart, mind, and soul to the Holy Spirit's call to live in union with the creator of the world.

(Speaking in German)

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.
