Prayer of Hope

Pastor: Our soul waits for the Lord; He is our help and our shield.

People: In Him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in His holy name.

Pastor: Let Your unfailing love be upon us, Lord, even as we put our hope in You. We remember Your promise: “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will fulfill the good promise I made.”

People: In those days, Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which He will be called: The Lord Our Righteous Savior.

Pastor: We hold fast to Your Word, O God, and look forward to the day You make all things new.

People: We see a new heaven and a new earth, where You dwell with Your people.

Pastor: You will wipe every tear from our eyes. There will be no more death, mourning, crying, or pain.

People: For the old order of things has passed away. You are making everything new.

All Together: Come, Lord Jesus. Our hope is in You. Let Your love sustain us, Your righteousness cover us, and Your presence renew us. Amen.

FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Words of Wisdom

November 30, 2025

We open our Advent Season with two readings from the Old Testament. Remember that these writings date back, close to 600 years, before the birth of a baby in the “Little Town of Bethlehem”.

From the book of Psalm, chapter 33, verses 20-22.

“We wait in hope for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in His holy name. May your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you.”

And now here the words from the prophet, Jeremiah.

“The days are coming, declares the Lord. “When I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah. In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David’s line; he will do what is just and right in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The Lord Our Righteous Savior.”

Allow these scriptures to bring revelation about the promises of God to God’s people.

People: Praise be to God.
