Words of Wisdom

As I have embarked into my ninth year of pastoral ministry at Knightsville, this opportunity to have been called by God to serve His people, at this time, in this place, has been an absolute blessing and joy. In retrospect, I can clearly see how God orchestrated His purpose through The Harper's to pastor a church that will always respond to "see a need and meet a need." It is through these years of servant leadership and being loved and supported that it has provided us with a strong foundation in continuing this "spiritual journey" in Summerville, South Carolina.

Knightsville Methodist has never missed a beat with providing our congregation / community with multiple weekly worship, discipleship opportunities, spiritual devotional classes, missional and ministry outreach programs, and fellowship activities. As a church family that understands that through a commitment to faith, family, and fellowship the words from Ephesians 2:10 will bring awakening into this community. We take seriously our belief that "all lives count and a church that matters" will create spiritual transformation.

As we come to the close of another year together and head into the Christmas season, I reflect upon the scripture we find in the 2nd chapter of the Gospel of Luke.

"But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.'" — Luke 2:10–11

Luke tells the story of God's perfect timing. For centuries, Israel waited for the Messiah. Prophets spoke of His coming, but generations passed without seeing the promise fulfilled. Then, in the quiet of Bethlehem, at just the right moment, Christ was born.

The shepherds heard the angel's announcement: "Today..." Not tomorrow, not someday, but now. God's appointed time had arrived. The birth of Jesus brought hope to the weary, peace to the troubled, joy to the brokenhearted, and love to the world.

This same truth speaks to us today:

- Hope — God's promises are sure; He fulfills them in His time.
- Peace — Christ's presence calms our fears and reconciles us to God.
- Joy — Salvation is here; we rejoice in the gift of eternal life.
- Love — God's love is revealed in sending His Son for us.

THE TIME IS NOW to live in God's appointed moment. Just as the shepherds left the fields to see the Savior, we are called to step out of routine and embrace the reality of Christ's presence in our lives today.

When asked, which is quite often, I tell everyone that Knightsville Global Methodist is getting healthier every day. And we are! As the "most loving place in town", I am confident that moving forward our church will be committed and intentional in their efforts to seek:

God, what do you want me to know?
God, what do you want me to do?
as we grow warmer through fellowship grow deeper through discipleship grow stronger through worship grow broader through ministry grow larger through evangelism

Ms. Cindy and I wish each of you a month filled with hope, peace, joy, and love. We look forward to seeing you in church this Advent season as we discover THE TIME IS NOW!

Blessings,
Pastor Robert

THE TIME HAS COME

Did you Know?

The True Meaning of Christmas Through the Light of a Candle and the Reflections of a Marine Veteran who became a Pastor.

"In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." John 1:4-5

On Christmas Eve, when the sanctuary grows quiet and the lights dim, and the first candle's flame is passed from one hand to another, something holy happens. In that warm glow, the true meaning of Christmas becomes clearer than at any other moment of the year. For someone who has lived long—80 plus years—who has known both the terror and horror of war and the peace of Christ's call into ministry, that single candle can speak more truth than many sermons I have heard or given. It tells the story of all our lives.

A candle begins in darkness. Just like we do. Just like our world did. Scripture tells us plainly that before Jesus came, the world was covered in shadows—fear, sin, confusion, and all the things that make our hearts feel heavy. Those who served willingly and went into harm's way in places like Vietnam or in the Desert, on board a ship or in the air, know what real, physical darkness feels like. Those who have lived many full years on this earth know the quieter kinds of darkness in loss, loneliness, regret, or the somber memories that time cannot erase. But then, on Christmas Eve, we watch one flame piercing the darkness. The Christ Candle is lit, and the darkened sanctuary brightens—even before a single word is spoken. It is a reminder that when Jesus was born in Bethlehem, God stepped into our darkness with His perfect light.

That is the heart of Christmas to me and to many across this globe. We pass the flame from person to person, candle to candle, and it spreads gently, quietly, beautifully. And in that moment, we see something children can understand and elders can testify to: the light grows when it is shared. That single candle—representing Christ—brings light to every face in the room. Just as one Savior brings hope to every life willing to receive Him.

For the veteran who once knew fear, this light means peace.

For the pastor who answered God's call late in life, it means purpose.

For the young child watching the sanctuary glow, possibly for the first time, it means safety and love.

For all of us, it means Emmanuel—God is with us.

The candlelight service also reminds us that Christ's coming was not loud or forceful. It was gentle. A baby's breath. A mother's lullaby. Shepherds keeping watch. It is a Light that does not blind, but guides. A Savior who does not push us away but draws us close.

And as we lift our candles high and sing Silent Night, we proclaim to one another—and to the world—that darkness does not win. Not the darkness of war, not the darkness of age, not the darkness of doubt, and not the darkness of this world. Jesus Christ has come, and His light cannot be overcome.

So, the true meaning of Christmas, seen most clearly in that candlelit glow, is this: God sent His Son to bring light into every darkness, hope into every heart, and peace into every story. And as long as His light shines, we never walk alone.

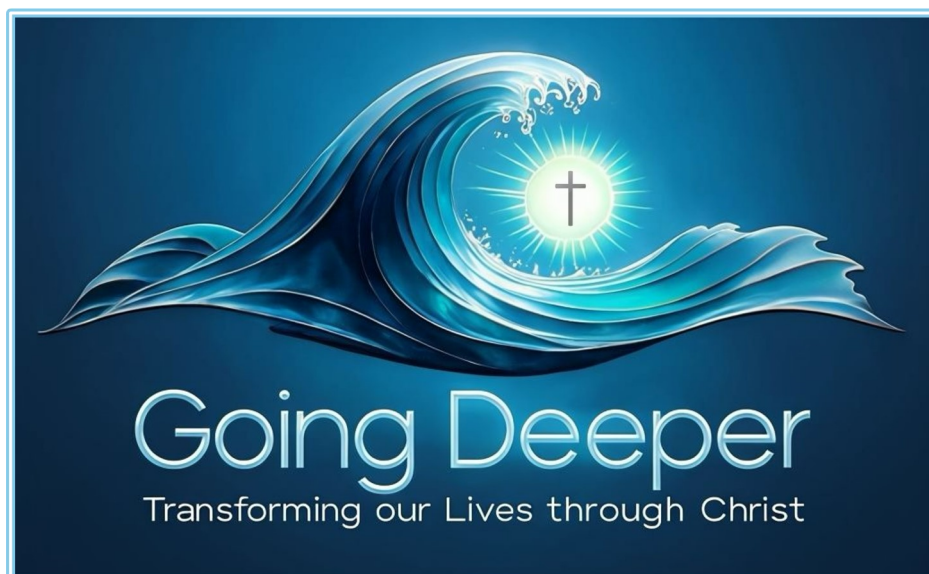

Merry Christmas!
Pastor Bill Masciangelo

Going Deeper

As we move into the Advent season, my soul longs for more. More of Jesus, more understanding of His love, more longing to be closer to Him. I am not sure where all of this comes from. I have been a Christian all of my life. Like everyone else, I have experienced good seasons and bad. But no matter what, I always come back to the love Jesus has for me. I need people around me to encourage and support me, people who know and love the Lord like I do. I've found many of those people among my friends and fellow travelers along life's highway. I've reached a point in my life where all the lessons that I've learned through the years have come together to meld me into a good and fruitful life. We all stumble and fall sometimes, but it's those who get up and continue on who make the biggest impact. Still, I feel like something is missing for me. A small piece of the puzzle. I'm happy and content, life is good, but my soul longs for more. My soul. How often do we think of how our soul is doing? The outside version of you may be happy, contented, and full of service to others and the Lord. But in this moment, I challenge you to look deep into your soul where all your vulnerability lies and see if you, too, are looking for more. Is your relationship with God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the Father, Immanuel – whatever term you want to use – is your relationship exactly where you want it to be?

The paragraph above is exactly why I joined a Going Deeper, small group here at KMC, last year when Knightsville Methodist implemented the groups. There are many groups. They meet on different days at different times. Morning, afternoon, and evenings. Most last no more than 90 minutes. If you are looking for more, I would encourage you to seek out one of these groups. If you cannot find one that works with your schedule, then we will find a way to start a new group. If you think you don't have time for another group perhaps you might reconsider. There are no books to study, no lesson plans to follow, no homework to be done, no out of class assignments. You simply arrive at the chosen time and place and share with your group. It's worth the 20-minute drive to wherever you are meeting. It's worth passing up that coffee shoppe. It's worth saying no to the trip to Target or the thrift shop. To quote from the book, "The Class Meeting" by Kevin M. Watson, "When people meet together and talk about their pursuit of God, and their experience of God, the Holy Spirit seems to show up and draw people closer to Christ."

So, in this Advent season, I challenge you to become vulnerable in your pursuit of God. Go where you haven't gone before. Be willing to show up for others and listen to them as they listen to you. Become vulnerable. It's the most life changing thing you can do! I know....because I've been there! I've lived it! And I learned and grew and became a better person for it. You can contact me through the information below or call the church office. Peggy Lawton Going Deeper Small Group Co-Ordinator lawtonp@comcast.net

Director of Ministerial Support

I grew up in a small rural neighborhood about 10 miles from town. As convenient grace would have it, my best friends in the neighborhood were two brothers who faithfully attended the Whitehall Church of Christ they had a grasp on the concept that the wages of sin was death and thanks to them, as an 8-year-old I can remember considering every decision that presented itself to me in terms of whether it would result in me going to hell or heaven? To me, it was simple, do good, don't do bad things. I attended Sunday School at the Eldora United Methodist Church and my main takeaway from those early years of Sunday School was that Jesus loves me and good people go to heaven and bad people go to hell.

And I was "all in" with being a good person. The first recollection I have of being asked about my salvation, you know the term "being saved" or "born again", was in middle school. There was a new boy who moved to town during my 7th grade year. Jim and I became close friends and spent a lot of time together. He was raised in a devoutly Christian home. I remember when the terms "saved" and "born again" came up for the first time. I remember taking a somewhat defensive stand when he asked me if I was "born again." My reply, "I don't have to be born again, I am not a bad person and never have been, so I don't have to be born again."

During my college years, I put that whole theory of being a good person and not having a need to be born again to the test. I guess you could say, I put church and Sunday school on the back burner. Even when I settled down a bit and became a father, I was still living in a state of brokenness. I was putting my energies into my career, professional associations, civic duties and leadership within my community. I thought I was doing a lot of good, because I was. I was even doing church work. Even though I was embarrassed at how I had scoffed at my friend at the suggestion of whether I was "saved", I was still living as if I didn't need to be born again. My truth was that I just needed to be good and do good, go to a good church and be a good Christian.

As hard as I try, I can't remember a specific moment when I turned my life over to Jesus as my Savior. Sometime after moving to Summerville back in 2007, I began to grow spiritually. I began to experience a need to go deeper and not just read but study the Word. I began to journal and write about what I was reading and how the Word of God was applying to my daily life. Something was happening, as a byproduct of my love for going deep with my writing I was beginning to see that I had a gift for expository teaching. For the first time in my life I began to understand the importance of having a "true- north" and the significance of God and Jesus being the ONLY real source of truth began to resonate with me.

I came across a book titled The Gospel According to Jesus, written by John McArthur. I bought the book, and I began to read it, and save for the parts that got deep into theology and topics like dispensationalism, I was intrigued by what he was saying. Particularly what was jumping out at me was that the contemporary church (all denominations) was focusing on "easy believism" which de-emphasized "obedience to God." He was saying that many churches were teaching that it was ok to choose your own truth and lifestyle. It didn't matter whether it was compatible with the creation story and that no matter what your sin, as long as you believed in Christ, you were forgiven. That whole message of "repent" that Isaiah prophesied about and John the Baptist proclaimed in announcing the coming of the Messiah seemed to no longer be applicable. I began to spend a lot of time praying, meditating and listening to God on the topic. Then, one day, probably way to late in my life, but thankfully in my life, God put this on my heart: "You are saved, You are being saved, You will be saved." I heard those 11 words differently from any gospel or salvation story that I had heard previously. Those words made it clear as to what I had been trying to figure out and what I had spent my entire life running from. I began to realize that my journey to sanctification was a journey and that, "You are saved," was a precious gift that I had been given by no effort of my own. That "you are being saved" was where the rubber meets the road and I realized that I had been stuck for most of my faith life in between "you are saved" and "you are being saved". For me to enter the "you are being saved" part of my salvation journey would involve me yielding my life to transformation by living for Christ and not relying so much on my own efforts, or in other words, finally "Being Born Again." And that the final part, "you will be saved" was where I realized that my faith came in. I finally understood, my salvation was a journey not a to-do list.

It was such an epiphany to me, it had turned my thought process and world view upside down. After considering the Wesleyan view of grace, and my life story and journey to becoming a disciple, I realize that maybe the time that I was saved or born again, wasn't any specific identifiable time. Maybe, yes definitely my being born again, was a prolonged period and that in a great act of mercy and grace, God was patient with me.

Disciple 1 Fast Track Bible Study is coming, beginning Wednesday, January 14th, 2026 we will start the New Testament. This class will meet in the fellowship Hall. Classes will begin at 10:00 AM and run to 11:30 AM.

This 12-week study immerses you in the New Testament (12 weeks - 2026). This study provides a great survey of the entire Bible. It is so important to have a solid base in the Old Testament in order to develop a full understanding of the New Testament, how God prepared Israel for the Messiah, and how Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament prophecies.

We will be "walking together" in this study with our friends from Summerville Methodist Church. Marc Jacques will be leading this upcoming fall session of the Old Testament. The plan is to have Marc and Pastor Bill (morning session) to lead us in the New Testament in 2026.

"I spent much of my adult life wanting to believe that Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior. But I frankly didn't know why. I believed because I was told to believe all my life. But my faith had no solid foundation until I participated in a Disciple 1 Bible Study class in the 1990s. With a very solid base of knowledge in both the Old Testament and the New Testament, my life and my faith were dramatically changed. My faith now has a very solid base of knowledge that can withstand the serious challenges we face daily in today's society." Marc Jacques

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Do you know how to knit or crochet?
Do you want to learn?

A group of women meet once a month to gather these prayer shawls, pass out free donated yarn, and visit as they work. Most of the shawls get completed at home and brought back the next month.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

A shawl can be any size. 12 inches by 40 inches or think of a large scarf and that would be a place to start. As you knit or crochet pray over you work for those who will be receiving the Shawl. They are given to Pastor Robert to take to shut ins, visits at hospitals and nursing homes. It allows the receiver to know someone has prayed for them and they are not forgotten.

Come one, come all – 3rd Tuesday morning of every month at 10:00 AM in the Fellowship Hall. P.S. Men can learn too. Find a new hobby and join us in this mission. For more information call Ginger Atwell 843-693-0859.

Men's Breakfast Club

Most Saturday mornings at 7am, a spirited group of "men of God" gather around the island in the kitchen at Knightsville Methodist Church while the designated "cooks" prepare hearty breakfasts including favorites like sausage and gravy biscuits, bacon, ham, sausage, fried and scrambled eggs and the best grits in South Carolina. Breakfast is followed by a short devotion time and planning for the many service projects that the Men's Breakfast Club assist with. Please consider joining us for breakfast and fellowship, Saturday mornings at 7am in the Family Life Worship Center.

Sunday School Classes

Kingdom Heirs is an interactive Sunday school class where attendees share in each others lives from week to week. We believe that everyone in our class is fully capable of teaching life lessons. David and Tricia Beal facilitate discussions and encourage everyone to participate in the current lesson. We are currently working on a six week Bible study based on "It's a Wonderful Life" this lesson will take us through the end of the year. Our next bible series will begin in early 2025. This lesson is from the book "Twelve Ordinary Men" and is an in depth study of the twelve disciples.

The Sue Knight Sunday class has been a mainstay at Knightsville Methodist Church for over 30 years. The class is a family, who literally gather in a circle within the Stephen Miller Conference Room in Fellowship Hall on Sunday mornings to study scripture, discern it's wisdom and meanings and discuss how the Word of God applies to our lives in today's world. We celebrate together, we sometimes cry together and we always pray together. The class is primarily lead by the husband-and-wife team of Shawn and Dianne Boykin and occasionally other class members will lead and facilitate their studies. It is an easy class to attend, and the leader can always count on lively and open discussions about the lesson topics. Our study is always concerned with delving into God's word and provides nourishment for the soul. We believe adult Sunday School classes are important because they provide spiritual growth and connections to like-minded believers equipping them to handle life's challenges, providing them with a foundation for understanding Holy Scripture and applying it's wisdom to their lives.

New Adult Sunday School class.... Abundant Life

Due to the growth of our current adult Sunday School Classes and to provide the opportunity for more people to attend and actively participate in the discussions, we have decided to start an additional class for adults. This class will begin on Sunday January 5th and will be facilitated by Jim and Martha Vaughn. The inaugural class curriculum will be Great Characters of the Bible by Dr. Alan Stringfellow . This is the study of characters of ordinary people that God used to accomplish extraordinary tasks. The class reviews what scripture reveals about each character and how God used them. Our first week we studied Adam. Next will be Eve then Cain, Able, and Seth followed by Noah and his sons. We are looking forward to learning and deepening our understanding of how god has blessed us. The class will tentatively meet in room 104 across from the pastor's office and the designated Sunday School hour which is generally 10am. Study books will be furnished at no cost to participants.

The Purpose Driven Adult Sunday School Class is a welcoming, prayer centered, interactive space where we delve deeply into scripture through discussion and personal reflection, aiming to apply biblical teachings to our everyday lives, fostering a strong sense of community and fellowship among members while encouraging open questions and diverse perspectives on the text; it's not just about learning facts, but about real-life application and spiritual growth together. *We are currently going through the book of Revelation*

Being the Hands and Feet of Jesus

“Behold the virgin shall be with child and shall bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel, which translated means, God with us.”

On the very first Christmas, God graciously gave the ultimate gift of his son so people could experience the healing touch of Immanuel – God with us.

And He remains with us. By the enriching and transforming power of His Holy Spirit, he touches us and moves through us in sometimes surprising ways to bring the wonderful gift of his love to others.

Christ is with us, and He is also with others through us. We are His hands and feet – those who represent Him with gentleness, with humility, and above all, with compassion.

During this holiday season, many people are in need of a word or a touch from Jesus to heal their broken lives. They long to experience His presence in a tangible way. They need someone they know to be Jesus for them. What greater gift could be given?

Lord, allow me to be the presence of Christ for someone that needs to experience your nearness today so that he or she will know that yes, Immanuel is truly here. God is truly with us.

New Hymnals

Coming Soon!!! New Hymnals for the pews.

It has been decades since a new hymnal has been published for Methodist congregations. Seed-bed has sought to put together a “new hymnal for a new day” that captures the essence of the Wesleyan vision of faith and spirit. This exciting new book of hymns is framed by The Apostles Creed and not only includes a rich treasury of hymns by John and Charles Wesley, it incorporates favorite classic hymns across the history of the Methodist movement but also includes some more contemporary, soon to be classics, into the offering as well.

COMING SOON in 2026 a new hymnal, “Our Great Redeemers Praise”, to a KMC pew near you.

If you would like to purchase or dedicate a new hymnal(s) please contact the church office at (843) 875-2117. The hymnals will be available for $29.95 for regular print and $39.95 for large print format.

The KMC Food Pantry will be open the 2nd & 4th Friday of December from 9am-11am. You can drop off donations at the church office.

GLOBAL

KNIGHTSVILLE Methodist Church

Faith - Family - Fellowship

Our Mission

The Global Methodist Church exists to make disciples of Jesus Christ and spread scriptural holiness across the globe.

In our worship, we desire to surrender to and be fully devoted to one God—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We are passionate about what is important to God.

Jesus calls those who follow Him to love God wholeheartedly and love their neighbors as themselves. Our desire is to demonstrate to the world the extravagant love of God in the person of Jesus Christ.

We have been entrusted with a lifesaving and transforming message that we must share with others. Our witness is bold, compelling and fearless. Our mission advances when individuals become disciples of Jesus Christ and join God's mission to make more disciples.

Our Vision

Through the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, the Global Methodist Church envisions multiplying disciples of Jesus Christ throughout the earth who flourish in scriptural holiness as we worship passionately, love extravagantly, and witness boldly.

Through our ministries, we desire to share the whole counsel of God with all peoples and to advance the presence and fulfillment of the Kingdom of God in every part of the world and at all levels of societies and cultures. The Global Methodist Church is committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, the inspiration and authority of the Scriptures, and the work of the Holy Spirit in conveying God's truth and grace to all people.

We are a global church that recognizes and deploys the gifts and contributions of each part of the church, working as partners in the gospel with equal voice and leadership. Our witness to the world is marked by mutual love, concern, sharing, and a focus on those who are most vulnerable. We watch over one another in love and bear witness to the transforming power of the Good News as we humbly, but boldly, strive to serve others as ambassadors of Christ!
